

PRESENTS

ZOË SCHWARZ & ROB KORAL

CELEBRATION

Rob Koral CELEBRATES his 10th album on 33 records.

Zoë and Rob's musical partnership has been described as "one of the most engagingly natural partnerships in jazz." Chris Parker.

"Playing duo gigs is such a huge part of what we do, a very intimate setting that Rob and I thrive on. It encourages us to grow ever more 'together' in our performance, listening and allowing each other to use the space to be creative, expressive, dynamic, intricate and I hope stylish. In the past we have often recorded many original songs but with this CD have decided to CELEBRATE the great standards, the backbone of jazz we know and love". Zoë

Rob Koral - Rob is originally from a self-taught blues background. He has since made his name on the British jazz scene, having performed with Jim Mullen, Django Bates, Bill Bruford, Tim Garland, Dave O'Higgins, Ainsley Dunbar and Sue Hawker. He has appeared on television on The Old Grey Whistle Test, The James Whale Show and Good Morning Australia, many radio shows and all the major clubs and festivals in the UK.

'Rob Koral is superb, his is a talent of world-class proportions' - Bruce Crowther - Jazz Journal International

Zoë Schwarz - Zoë's formal classical background included studying with Esther Salaman, passing Royal Academy exams in singing, piano, clarinet and theory and gaining a BA (hons) Performing Arts degree from Middlesex University (Music Major). Zoë has headlined at Ronnie Scott's, The Vortex, Dean Street and many clubs, theatres and festivals all over the UK. She has performed with an extraordinarily wide range of musicians including Harrison Birtwistle, Emma Kirkby, Scott Stroman and Keith Tippett.

'Glorious' - Humphrey Lyttelton
